

I have been calling through VRS more often than what I did call through TRS (Telephone Relay Service). VRS is more efficient communication between deaf people and hearing people. Also Voice mail is best tools we always wanted to have, so far in a month we got more than 4 voicemails. Please do not give FCC's control over our Deaf needs. Thanks for concerning our feeling.